

Korean Society for People, Plants and Environment Author Checklist

● Title of Paper:

Examination Items	Judgment by Item
	Yes	No
1. Do the contents of paper come under the area of this Society?
2. Does the paper provide creative academic information?
3. Is the paper framed suitably for the general submission regulations?
4. Isn't the paper too theoretic or subjective?
5. Do the Korean and English abstracts represent the contents of the text?
6. Are the Korean and English titles of paper suited to the contents of paper?
7. Are the study methods and experiment methods proper?
8. Are the methods of collection of various data and analysis valid?
9. Are the tables and figures necessary and do they give clear information?
10. Aren't there any issue on spelling and terminology, misspelling, or omitted letters?
11. Is the consideration sufficient, and does the conclusion have logic?
12. Is the entire system composition simple and not complex?
13. Are the keywords and cited literature proper and sufficient?
14. Aren't there any contents coming under the research misconduct (forgery, falsification, unjust indication of author, double publication of research data)?		